

The United States Department of Labor classifies a nontraditional occupation as one in which individuals preparing for that field are on a career path to an occupation that generally employs less than 20 percent of a specific gender. For female nontraditional careers, less than 20 percent of individuals employed are female; likewise, male nontraditional careers employ less than 20 percent males.

Campus	Program	Nontraditional Gender
Central North South	Accounting and Related Services	Male
Central	Audiovisual Communications Technologies/Technicians	Female
Central North South	Business Administration, Management and Operations	Female
Central North South	Business Operations Support and Assistant Services	Male
Central	Cardiovascular Technology/Technologist	None
Central	Clinical/Medical Laboratory Technician	Male
Central North South	Computer and Information Sciences, General	Female
North	Construction Engineering Technologies	Female
North South	Cosmetology and Related Personal Grooming Services (Barber)	Female
North South	Cosmetology and Related Personal Grooming Services (General)	Male
Central North	Criminal Justice and Corrections	Female
North	Culinary Arts and Related Services	Female
Central South	Design and Applied Arts	None
Central	Diagnostic Medical Sonography/Sonographer and Ultrasound Tech	None
Central North South	Drafting/Design Engineering Technologies/Technicians	Female
Central North	Electrical and Power Transmission Installers	Female

Campus	Program	Nontraditional Gender
Central	Electrical Engineering Technologies/Technicians	Female
Central South	Electromechanical and Instrumentation and Maintenance Techno	Female
Central North	Emergency Medical Technology/Technician (EMT Paramedic)	None
Central	Fire Protection	Female
Central North	Health and Medical Administrative Services	Male
South	Health and Physical Education/Fitness	None
Central North South	Health Services/Allied Health/Health Sciences, General	None
North South	Heating, Air Conditioning, Ventilation and Refrigeration Mai	Female
Central North South	Human Development, Family Studies, and Related Services	Male
Central	Industrial Production Technologies/Technicians	Female
Central	Interior Design	None
North	International Business	Female
North	Legal Support Services	Male
Central	Marine Transportation	Female
North	Medical/Clinical Assistant	Male
North	Mental and Social Health Services and Allied Professions	Male
South	Occupational Therapist Assistant	Male
Central	Ophthalmic and Optometric Support Services and Allied Profes	Male
North South	Pharmacy Technician/Assistant	Male

Campus	Program	Nontraditional Gender
Central	Physical Science Technologies/Technicians	None
South	Physical Therapist Technician/Assistant	Male
North	Plumbing and Related Water Supply Services	Female
North South	Practical Nursing, Vocational Nursing and Nursing Assistants	Male
Central North	Precision Metal Working	Female
Central	Quality Control and Safety Technologies/Technicians	None
Central	Radiologic Technology/Science - Radiographer	None
Central North South	Real Estate	None
Central North South	Registered Nursing, Nursing Administration, Nursing Research	Male
Central	Respiratory Care Therapy/Therapist	None
South	Somatic Bodywork and Related Therapeutic Services	Male
Central	Surgical Technology/Technologist	Male
Central North	Vehicle Maintenance and Repair Technologies	Female